Why we want you

Join us as one of our Youth Volunteers to participate in a host of national programmes from Duke of Edinburgh to our Youth Fellowship Programme. We have a range of activities on offer that all contribute to your personal development and wellbeing, will help you give back to your community and help to build skills you can take with you for life.

What you will be doing

- Taking part in fun activities
- Volunteering in the community
- Learning new skills

The skills you need

- No formal skills required

What's in it for you

- Improvement to health and wellbeing
- A chance to meet new people
- Skills for future use
